Please join us in welcoming our newest member of the SAGE Team – Christina Park! As an Administrative Assistant, Christina brings over seven years of experience working in highly client-centric environments in various administrative support roles. Christina’s experience in various industries, including legal, automotive, health and wellness and retail, provided her with great experience to adapt quickly and broadened her knowledge and awareness of the world around her. She believes adaptability, innovation and communication are key to achieving and maintaining success in any business, especially in a world that is constantly evolving. .

Christina attended Indiana University where she studied Communications and Journalism. To get to know Christina better, please visit her bio page.
