June 12, 2020

Dear Client,

A good part of our focus of late has been assisting our business owner friends and clients in navigating the CARES Act process and to leverage the resources available. Related, we are also helping our friends and clients navigate the Family First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) as it is an important employee relations consideration for small business owners and operators.

A few areas where we've been able to provide guidance. Please contact our offices directly or work through your SAGE Wealth Advisor for more details.

- Emergency Family and Medical Leave Act Expansion
- Emergency Paid Sick Leave
- Tax Credits for Paid Sick and Paid Family and Medical Leave
- Emergency Unemployment Insurance Stabilization and Access Act of 2020

We have found this to be an invaluable resource, HERE.

SAGE Private Wealth Group is ready to assist our small business clients, friends and community members as they consider and navigate the several relief programs offered by the government.
